Ronald Sakaguchi, DDS, MS, PhD, MBA
Professor and Academic Director
School of Medicine, Oregon Health & Science University (OHSU),
an affiliate of the Grant Training Center

Wednesday, December 4 (Reading Day)
8:00 am to 3:00 pm
Coverdell Auditorium*
*A alternative site will be procured if attendance tops 100.

About The Speaker

Dr. Ronald Sakaguchi teaches courses in innovation, critical thinking, and strategy. He has also served as the Associate Dean for Research and Innovation at the School of Dentistry at OHSU, and led seminars on time management and strategic planning.

Dr. Sakaguchi’s research has been funded continuously by NIH since 1992, as well as industry and foundations. He has published two textbooks, over 50 scientific articles, over 65 abstracts and has presented at many scientific conferences and clinical study clubs. He was the editor for North American submissions to an international journal in materials science for 13 years. He has also served on scientific review panels for the NIH for more than 15 years. Dr. Sakaguchi was awarded ‘Teacher of the Year’ for five consecutive years and has received several other teaching and service awards.

How to Participate

• Deans and Directors are asked to determine how many faculty slots he/she is able to commit. Tentative cost per attendee is $100, with a projected attendance of 100 faculty. Final price per attendee will be determined by number of attendees, and you will be billed for this after the new year.

• Please respond to Tokesha Warner (tlwarner@uga.edu or 2-2090) with the number of attendees you are willing to support by Wednesday, November 27. Specific names of sponsored attendees will be needed no later than Monday, Dec. 2.

The workshop will be held the Coverdell Auditorium. An alternative site will be procured if attendance tops 100, so please register as soon as possible.