CREATIVE RESEARCH AWARDS

Award Description and Eligibility

- Creative Research Awards recognize an established investigator whose research/creative accomplishments at UGA and overall scholarly body of work have had a major impact on the field of study and have established the investigator's international reputation as a leader in the field. Nominations should clearly describe the scope and significance of the investigator's work, how this contribution has influenced the field of study, and evidence of the nominee's status as an internationally respected scholar in the field.
- Awards are given annually in different discipline areas and are named in honor of three renowned UGA professors: Albert Christ-Janer, Lamar Dodd and William A. Owens.
- Prize: $2,500 and artwork
- Eligibility: Associate professors and full professors (tenure-track) who have been in residence at UGA for at least three years.

Nomination Process

- Nominations are first submitted to the nominee's Dean's office or Center/Institute Director for initial review. Deans' offices and Center/Institute Directors then submit nominations to the Office of Research.
- Deans/Directors are strongly encouraged to solicit a pool of nominations that represent the full scope of their faculty and forward only their most qualified candidates to the Office of Research.
- Deans' offices and Center/Institute Directors will submit their nominations via UGA's InfoReady Portal using the Creative Research Award Nomination Form.
